COUNTRY FACES SERIOUS PLIGHT AS MINES CLOSE

PITTSBURG KAN. July 26.—Half the miners in the Kansas coal fields, totaling 6.090, are on strike. Alexander Flowat, president of the Kansas Mine Union, said today that the strike, which began Saturday, is a protest against the deduction of fines from the pay of miners for refusal to work on Saturdays. Howat said that miners who were working today would clean up the mines and be idle tomorrow.

It would be less than the countries in the further estimate is made that before the first production today is 25,090,090 tons behind the schedule which should be maintained to supply all needs next winter.

With transportation priorities in effect and minea in operations however, the statement concluded, the present and potential winter short ages alike can be obviated, and the present speculative prices brought own to normal.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., July 26.—Departure of John C. Lennon, one of the three Department of Labor conciliators, for his home in Bloomington, indicated tonight that attempts at "conciliation," temporarily at least, are checked. The other conciliators, William P. Rogers, of Albids, lowa, and John B. Walsh, of Indianapelis, declared their conference with Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, had produced no results. They have no plans as to future action.

President Farrington held out no promise for betterment of the strike situation. While local operators estimated the number of miners in the State at work to be forty, Mr. Farringtons zuess was "about twenty" five." There is no indication, he said that the miners will resume work although the only orders going from him advise such a return.

MILLIONS of DOLLARS WORTH - CANNED MEAT

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO LOWER LIVING COSTS-

The War Department is now offering to the American public, through the thousands of wholesale and retail dealers of this country, millions of dollars worth of canned meats at prices approximating those which prevailed seven years ago. Foodstuff costs now are nearly three times as much as in 1913. Here, then, you have tangible evidence of a material reduction in the cost of living, even under pre-war figures.

Quality-Condition-Guarantee

These meats, stored at points of short haul to nearly every section of the United States, are the best in quality, grade and condition, obtainable. Packed by the leading packing houses of North and South America, under Governmental supervision, their quality is unquestioned, their condition is guaranteed. Backed by the United States Government, the War Department will make good every claim put forward for these

The War Department guarantees to deliver meats in perfect condition. The most rigid inspection was made as these meats were being selected, cooked, prepared for canning, and canned. Six million men thrived on these products while the nation was at war. The health and strength of these millions testifies to their nutritive value and their palatability.

A Nationwide Distribution

The War Department is making it possible—in fact, is doing everything in its power—to place these ments in the homes of every individual at a minimum cost, from the heart of the most populous of cities to the shack on a Western plain.

These meats are not being offered for export. It is the purpose of the War Department to use every available outlet for the distribution of these edibles so that the American public as a whole' may benefit directly by the extremely low prices at which they

Wide publicity is being given to the wholesale prices at which these meats are being sold. Retailers acting in complete harmony with the purpose of the Government to get these meats to the people at correspondingly low prices will render a service that will be at once recognized and appreciated, the good-will value of which cannot be estimated in dollars and cents.

More than fifty million people in the United States are being told convincingly that the War Department in selling these meats at the prices named affords them an unusual opportunity to lower their living costs.
